

Mentoring Contracts & Fees 2011/12

The mentoring relationship provides helpful support, valuable experience and new resource that will increase the chance of success, while reducing risk to your business.

The minimum duration is 3 months, as it will take a quarter to begin to see tangible results from new activity.

The key to success is your own commitment towards improvement and change.

Take the opportunity to discuss how mentoring could best support you and your business, during a free consultation with Hussein Dickie. Once the best way forward has been identified, there are several contract options:
